Kraft, House of the Week: A house that remembers where it was 25 years ago By A Week, kraftmagazine.com July 07, 2011 To see this week's house, click here. Rachael Brader-Johnson writes about a great antique: A hug from the past, June 30. Photograph: Robert Breitmayer When I was 17, we moved to The Linden, the mansion that was famous, or infamous, depending on whom you ask, for its mold-splattered walls and bedsores. We lived on the second floor of the west wing, which had 11 bedrooms, many of them "lilliputian," according to a local property historian, Norman Barish. There was a room for each of my brothers and sisters and their mothers. There were three children's rooms. My parents had the smallest bedroom. We didn't have our own rooms. We shared with seven other families. Our bunk beds sat right next to the thin walls of an office, so that room was always raucous. Above that room, the chandelier and radiators would clatter so loudly that the children would hide in the bathroom. Over the next four years I would work at the mansion full-time, until I was old enough to be hired out to a nanny. I did such things as fetching the master's bath towels, clearing empty liquor bottles from the staircase and sweeping the floors. I scrubbed the floors. I cleaned the stables. I scrubbed the rest of the house until my hands swelled and the three incisions on my thumb that I

How much does Google consider me worth? What is eXpress PageRank? If you already know the answer, we think you must be bored with the page rank software you are using to check your page rank! We know that the majority of people who try to find out the Google Page Rank value, do not know exactly what is Page Rank, and what does it mean in the life of your site. In this article we will explain to you what is the Google Page Rank, and what is the eXpress Page Rank, the comparison between the two and how to get the Google Page Rank value of any website you want. Google Page Rank Google is the biggest search engine and web indexing the web. It is also the most famous in the world, and sometimes it is called web encyclopedia or search engine. The Google Page Rank value represents the authority of a given website in the web. Each web page in the Google index is ranked by google algorithms and for that reason a page has a different importance on Google. For example, a web page that is only 4 years old and has a few links receives a Google Page Rank of 10. On the other hand a web page that is indexed by Google for 10 years and has more than 500 links receives a Google Page Rank value of 4. So if your page is ranked high, you are probably in a safe zone, so to say. But the Google page rank is a just one of a thousand factors that can influence a website to rank high in Google. The real value of a web page in Google is called Page Rank. It is the highest value of all Google search tools that can help a webmaster to improve his web page ranking. eXpress Page Rank eXpress is a new and powerful tool to see the Google Page Rank and other information about your site from the same page without installing any Google toolbar or other programs on your computer.
