Sarah Hall has always assumed that her life would be dull and unexciting. Marriage to the charming but charmingly dull Ian isn't working out. Ian enjoys his hobby of creating bridges, but Sarah's far more enthusiastic. Worse, the secret of their marriage is slowly being uncovered. Wealthy diplomat and family man James Davenport is not looking for love. There are better fish to fry. Until he's sent by the

Davenport family to investigate a matter of missing money and papers, and the mysterious death of a business associate. Before he can ask the proper questions, the body, a man almost as rich as the Davenports, is found murdered. Sarah Hall is the nosiest person in
